P-40 WARHAWK

ALMOST READY-TO-FLY GIANT SCALE MODEL

WHEN TIGERS RULED THE SKIES

A replica of the P-40 Warhawk made famous by Colonel Claire Chennault's "Flying Tigers" squadron at the onset of World War II, Top Flite's IMAA-legal model utilizes Gold Edition engineering to capture every detail of this revered warbird in a scale-flying ARF.

- ✔ Built-up balsa and ply airframe with fiberglass cowl, belly pan and landing gear pods
- ✔ Exceptional scale flight characteristics using affordable and easy-to-maintain 43-55 cc gasoline engines
- ✔ The iconic "shark mouth" nose art is painted on; a scale-shaped, painted aluminum spinner is included
- ✔ Heavy-duty fixed landing gear is included — optional Robart® retract gear can easily be installed for the ultimate in authenticity
- ✔ The split flaps are ribbed, just like on a full-size P-40, and the wings are reinforced to withstand less-than-perfect landings
